Seth Low's supporters were Tam-many for Croker.

Some men meet with reverses and others go after them.

Turkey appears to be a sort of international "Pinky Blitz."

It will be observed that Ohio Republicans are not Nash-ing their teeth.

The credit a man gets for being a golf expert is not accepted at the bank.

Faint heart ne'er won fair lady but it has kept its possessor out of lots of trouble.

Though New York is divided up into burroughs, it is not a prairie dog town.

Johnson: The superiority of some men is merely because their associates are little.

A $10 gold piece usually shows more evidence of constant use than the golden rule.

Hare: When listeners refrain from evil hearing, talkers will refrain from evil speaking.

When a man gets turned down at the bank he often has trouble getting on his feet again.

It requires more ardor than discrimination to love one's neighbor when one lives in a flat.

October was a pretty decent sort of a month, and so was November for the first 36 hours.

Besides the "powers that be" and the "powers that pray" Kentucky also has Caleb on hands.

Cole and James Younger are finding their second time on earth considerably less thrilling than the first.

Out in Kansas, when a man is too proud to beg and too honest to steal, he organizes a new fraternal order.

Indian summer, however ideal, has its disadvantages, and the odor of burning leaves is not the least of them.

It is noticeable that a man who fails to mind his own business usually neglects, also, to mind his own business.

Indian girls are well behaved, as a rule, but the young bucks act almost as disgracefully as some of the whites.

Frost is described by an Indiana philosopher as "a cosmetic to the face of nature—with the usual final results."

L'Estrange: It is not the place, nor the condition, but the mind alone that can make anyone happy or miserable.

Every cloud has a silver lining. The failure of the corn crop and the shortage of husks has caused a hot tamale famine.

Persons whose Beaumont speculations have been failures should not despair. Certificates of stock also make excellent fuel.

Wireless telegraphy undoubtedly needs some shorter and more convenient name, but "Ether-graphy" doesn't help much.

A New York contractor who offered a $2,000 bribe to a naval officer has been sent to jail and fined $1—the naughty thing.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one entirely through her foot and a second one-half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well-known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Richardson Drug Co.

Horticulturalist Geo. W. Kennedy of Carrollton has discovered that the cherry buds are swelling, and expresses the opinion that even if they make no further advancement this fall it is probable that the cold weather will destroy them and cause an extremely small crop next season. Some folks will insist on crossing bridges before they get to them.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest entirely disappeared. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64-Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Richardson Drug Co.

Robt. Banks, a prominent farmer of Livingston county, was arrested last week on a charge of voting illegally. It appears that Banks has a farm on the line dividing Livingston and Carroll county, and that he had been voting in Carroll county, but just before the last general election Mr. Banks, acting on the advice of Judge Broadbuss, concluded that Livingston county was the proper place to cast his ballot, and voted in that county.
